

Orders of Worship and Announcements November 6, 2011

All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen

READING

Judges 7:1-22a; 8:28, 32-35

Pew Bible, OT pages 248, 249 & 250

THE STORY, CHAPTER 8

<sup>7:1</sup>Early in the morning, Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) and all his men camped at the spring of Harod. The camp of Midian was north of them in the valley near the hill of Moreh.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, "You have too many men. I cannot deliver Midian into their hands, or Israel would boast against me, 'My own strength has saved me.' <sup>3</sup>Now announce to the army, 'Anyone who trembles with fear may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.'" So twenty-two thousand men left, while ten thousand remained.

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD said to Gideon, "There are still too many men. Take them down to the water, and I will thin them out for you there. If I say, 'This one shall go with you,' he shall go; but if I say, 'This one shall not go with you,' he shall not go." <sup>5</sup>So Gideon took the men down to the water. There the LORD told him, "Separate those who lap the water with their tongues as a dog laps from those who kneel down to drink." <sup>6</sup>Three hundred of them drank from cupped hands, lapping like dogs. All the rest got down on their knees to drink. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men that lapped I will save you and give the Midianites into your hands. Let all the others go home." <sup>8</sup>So Gideon sent the rest of the Israelites home but kept the three hundred, who took over the provisions and trumpets of the others. Now the camp of Midian lay below him in the valley.

<sup>9</sup>During that night the LORD said to Gideon, "Get up, go down against the camp, because I am going to give it into your hands. <sup>10</sup>If you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah <sup>11</sup>and listen to what they are saying. Afterward, you will be encouraged to attack the camp." So he and Purah his servant went down to the outposts of the camp. <sup>12</sup>The Midianites, the Amalekites and all the other eastern peoples had settled in the valley, thick as locusts. Their camels could no more be counted than the sand on the seashore. <sup>13</sup>Gideon arrived just as a man was telling a friend his dream. "I had a dream," he was saying. "A round loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the Midianite camp. It struck the tent with such force that the tent overturned and collapsed." <sup>14</sup>His friend responded, "This can be nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God has given the Midianites and the whole camp into his hands."

<sup>15</sup>When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he bowed down and worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel and called out, "Get up! The LORD has given the Midianite camp into your hands." <sup>16</sup>Dividing the three hundred men into three companies, he placed trumpets and empty jars in the hands of all of them, with torches inside. <sup>17</sup>"Watch me," he told them. "Follow my lead. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly as I do. <sup>18</sup>When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets, then from all around the camp blow yours and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.'"

<sup>19</sup>Gideon and the hundred men with him reached the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after they had changed the guard. They blew their trumpets and broke the jars that were in their hands.

<sup>20</sup>The three companies blew the trumpets and smashed the jars. Grasping the torches in their left hands and holding in their right hands the trumpets they were to blow, they shouted, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!" <sup>21</sup>While each man held his position around the camp, all the Midianites ran, crying out as they fled.

<sup>22</sup>When the three hundred trumpets sounded, the LORD caused the men throughout the camp to turn on each other with their swords.

<sup>8:28</sup>Thus Midian was subdued before the Israelites and did not raise its head again. During Gideon's lifetime, the land had peace forty years.

<sup>8:32</sup>Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>33</sup>No sooner had Gideon died than the Israelites again prostituted themselves to the Baals. They set up Baal-Berith as their god <sup>34</sup>and did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hands of all their enemies on every side. <sup>35</sup>They also failed to show any loyalty to the family of Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) in spite of all the good things he had done for them.

The word of the Lord.

Matthew 5:1-12

Pew Bible, NT pg. 4

The holy gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him.

<sup>2</sup>Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

<sup>3</sup>"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>4</sup>"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

<sup>5</sup>"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

<sup>6</sup>"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

<sup>7</sup>"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

<sup>8</sup>"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup>"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

<sup>10</sup>"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup>"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account <sup>12</sup>Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

...ITEMS OF INTEREST THIS WEEK...

SUPPER this Wednesday, November 9, serving from 5:30 to 6 p.m. in Jack's Place. Menu features chicken noodle soup, turkey sandwiches, spaghetti and meatballs, salad and dessert, all for $4 per adult and $2 per child. All are welcome.

HOW CAN YOU HELP A CHILD THIS WINTER? Donate hats, mittens, socks, underwear and girls coats!! Once again we have an opportunity to share our love for Jesus by doing something thoughtful for others. Beginning Sunday, November 6, we have a Hat and Mitten Tree in the hallway outside Pastor Mitchell's office. Yes, this is a little early again this year, but the demand increases as cold weather arrives and Rosemarie Donley at Associated Charities needs these donations before the holidays. Please bring new or slightly used hats and mittens to hang on our tree. In addition to the hats and mittens that we normally collect, there is a tremendous need for small children's heavy gloves and new or gently used (working zipper, no rips or stains) young girls winter coats, sizes 3T-18. They would be greatly appreciated. The tree and coat rack will stay up through Monday, November 28. The donations will then be taken for distribution to area needy children. Please help keep a little child a bit warmer by filling up our tree and coat rack!

BLOOD PRESSURE SCREENING next Sunday, November 13, after the 8:30 service and ten minutes PRIOR to the 10:45 services in the Music Room. The nurse can help you monitor this important aspect of your health.

TLC PRESCHOOL Silent Auction this week! Donations are still welcomed to be auctioned. Suggestions are new toys (or "like-new" and gently used toys), seasonal crafts, promised to render a special service or talent (i.e. baking a special cake, bread, cookies, etc.), or a service offered from your business. Items will be displayed and available to bid on this Monday, November 7, thru Wednesday, November 9, from 8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. Please bring your donations to the preschool or the church office anytime before Wednesday, Noember 9. (The sooner the better!) Thank you for your support of this ministry to young children and their families!

CHRISTMAS MUSICAL: Our 27th annual Christmas musical, Christmas Canticles, will be presented December 10 & 11 at all three services. The many rehearsals give ample time for people with busy schedules to find time to sing in the chorus. (You will be able to master the parts if you make at least half of the practices, but of course the more the merrier.) Pick up a schedule and choir booklet this weekend in time for our next rehearsals this Monday evening, November 7 from 8 to 9 p.m., a daytime rehearsal on Wednesday, November 9 from 11 a.m. to 12 noon, and then again Wednesday, November 9 from 8 to 9 p.m.

IDENTITY THEFT PROGRAM on November 9 & 16 at 6:15 p.m. in the Trinity Room, presented by Tia Sponsler. If your identity is stolen, it's more than an inconvenience. It puts your finances and credit rating at risk – and that's just the beginning. Find out what steps you can take to help ensure your identity isn't stolen. During the workshop you will learn how identity theft can occur, tips to protect yourself and steps you can take if identity theft does happen to you.

We will have a sale of Kenyan crafts from this organization after each service on the weekends of November 19-20 and 26-27 in the hallway outside Jack's Place on Sundays and in the narthex on Saturday nights. This will be a great chance to buy unique Christmas gifts that serve a good purpose. Those who can't come can order directly off the website. In both cases Trinity will receive 10% of sales for our own projects.

OUR ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE featuring seasonal music, communion, and a message is Wednesday, November 23, at 7:00 p.m. Special music will be presented by the Choir, the Trinity Brass, and other musicians. Pastor Sanford C. Mitchell will deliver the sermon. Our worship will have a "harvest home" theme as we thank God for the many benefits we have received. The celebration of Holy Communion around the table of the Lord will help center our thoughts as we gather around our own tables on Thanksgiving Day. 10

We encourage families with children to attend and for all worshippers to bring a can of food or other supplies for the Ashland County Food Bank. The food is collected by the children as part of the children's sermon. Please plan to attend and bring friends or visiting relatives. Child care will be provided. The service will be recorded and then broadcast over WNCO-AM 1340 on Thanksgiving Day at 9:30 a.m.

The Surprising Story of the Three Little Pigs

It begins telling the story of the Three pigs, but then things start to become a little strange. Some of the pigs aren't happy to be in a story with a Wolf. They meet The Voice who is the narrator of the story and learn that there are other stories out there, so one of the pigs goes off in search of a story without a wolf. Then we meet the Three Billy Goats Gruff and the Three Bears and things get really mixed up.
