Take a look at this picture, which you will find on the cover of the Story and ask yourself what does its symbolism mean to me?

Print this page and keep it in your book for reference.

You will notice that this scheduled includes breaks for celebrating church events, holidays and for periodically reviewing and renewing our focus.

Does that mean there will be no Sunday School on those dates?
NOT NECESSARILY– most classes will still meet but will use the weeks off as an opportunity to revisit parts of the book that they want to discuss more, take a week to catch up with each other and have brunch or do something just a little different for a week.

There will definitely NOT be Sunday School for adults, youth or children on Christmas Day or New Year's Day
